

The Biography of Pastor Jethro Ngo Kho

Pastor Jethro was born at Lailenpi village in 10.11.1977. He has three brothers and four sisters. His parents are still alive. He was born again when he was (12) years old and was baptized with the Holy Spirit in 2001. He began studying the Word of God at Bible college in Yangon in 2001 and accomplished his Master of Divinity Degree in 2007. After that he became a professor at Bible College. After serving God as professor for three years at Bible College, he went to India for further study. He studied M.Th (Master of Theology) at India Baptist Theological Seminary from 2010 to 2012. After he finished his study, he came back to Myanmar. One day I was having fasting prayer in the church at midday alone and when he was praying God told him through the scriptures such as Isaih 6:8 and Mathews 28:19-20 to go and plant new church among other religion.

He got married in 2013 and now has a son. He started a new church in 2013 and now there are 40 church members in his church. There is adult worship service every Sunday, Sunday school children class every Sunday and small group service in the other days. He has a great desire to evangelize unbelievers. Moreover, he is a part time professor at Bible College. He is also Christian books translator. He has translated many Christian books. He studied Leadership Lessons in Singapore for five months in 2017. He also earned B.A from Government University in 2013 as Correspondence.

He is so passionate to look after the church members and reach the unreached people and lead them to Christ. He is so committed to God his whole life for God's glory. His vision is to have 500 church members in his local church and to send church planters to plant new churches the place where there is no existing church. He has a loving heart to care the needy people. Obedience to the Lord is his first priority. The problems, difficulties, challenges and persecutions are not issue for him. His will is to see people converting to Christ and every church member growing into the likeness of Christ. Reading scripture and prayer is his strength in ministry. He has the gift of teaching and the gift of tongue.
